JAMES M. COX

James M. Cox, whose likeness appears above, is the standard bearer of the Democracy of today as well as of all precedents. As the campaign advances the assurances of the election of Cox and Roosevelt have been made certain.

GREENWAY NOW A DEMOCRAT.

Immediately following adjournment of the Republican national convention, Colonel John C. Greenway sent word from Chicago to friends in Cochise county, Arizona, that he would not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Those knowing Colonel Greenway's friendship and admiration for General Leonard Wood, surmised the colonel's decision not to be a candidate for the senate was influenced by the alleged questionable methods employed at the Chicago convention to defeat General Wood for the presidential nomination.

This suspicion is confirmed by the Hiber Review, which in a recent editorial says:

"Colonel John C. Greenway, close friend of Roosevelt and active supporter of General Leonard Wood, like the Republican nominees little enough to declare that his vote will go to Governor James M. Cox of Ohio this fall."

"Colonel Greenway is not alone in his stand. There are thousands of former progressive Republicans throughout the country, who resent the return of the party to the domination of Peirce, Murry Crane and their friends. The protest is not against Senator Harding personally, but merely against what he represents in the form of reactionary policies and principles."—Douglas International.

Cox and Roosevelt will have many ex-Republican votes. They will have them in Luna county also. "They are not 'flapping' one by one, but by dozens. The $700,000 Peirce scandal was too much for most Republicans to stomach. They couldn't believe it. And when it was found out and proven that all of the leaders were tainted, and the convention found it impossible to nominate anyone but a comparatively unknown dark horse as a standard bearer for the studies of Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Roosevelt, it was too much and they are betting and the Democratic ranks are increasing in every state in the Union."

Nearly every Democratic newspaper that is received by the Daily Courier contains the names of former Republicans joining the Democratic ranks. The Courier has good authority for asserting that one of the most prominent Republicans in Luna county has quit the Republican party and will vote for Cox and Roosevelt. His name will be made public later on in the campaign.

SHIRTS GIVE THEM A CHANCE

The only group of men that have ever been friendly to teeth in the United States are now in power in Mexico. Give them a chance. Stand by throughout the great war General Pablo Gonzalez was a consistent friend of this country. P. Elias Galles, while governor of Sonora and since that time, has proved himself a square, open and above board friend. Adolfo de la Huerta has repeatedly shown his admiration and good will for us. Give them a chance. If there is to be any hope for Mexico in the next decade these men will provide it. If they fail, there is absolutely no other group of men able enough to get anywhere. They have rebuked Villa and his lawless friends, and others of the same caliber. They have insofar as they have gone set their houses in neat array, and above all have offered us the only real assurance of protection along the border we have had since Porfirio Diaz went out of power. The record of Mexico is one long list of corruption, assassination and misrule. The group at the head of affairs now are apparently honest and able to give some sort of stable government to the ignorant and huddled overgrown people. Give them a chance. As soon as at all consistent the United States government should recognize the new government and give it every aid possible under the rules of international diplomacy. Southwestern Magazine.

INTELLECTUAL ON THE BACK

William Brewster Lloyd, one of a family of intellectuals, and with inherited millions to back up scattered theories, along with the millionaire hobo Edie Howe, has floundered into the long sought for floundering. He is on trial in a Chicago court for his Socialistic tendencies which culminated in his alleged violation of the federal statutes with eighteen other defendants. It is hoped he will get a fair trial. It is also hoped that if the evidence warrants he will be convicted, declared mentally incompetent and his millions scattered where they will do some good, especially as he refuses to divide them with his chosen brethren.

DREAM OF LOVE

ENDED BY DEATH

Falling desperately in love with the first white man she ever had seen, Princess Zara, daughter of the Maharaja of a South Sea island tribe, is forced to sacrifice her life that her sweetheart may return safely to his American fiancée. This is the theme of the latest Fox superproduction, "A Woman There Was," which opens an engagement at the Onyx theater tonight.

Theater Bares plays the part of the semi-savage princess and in the action of the piece digresses materially, it is reported, from her previous vaudeville roles.

Numerous thrilling scenes, which are said to make this a truly wonderful picture, including a raging typhoon which completely destroys a native village, the action of a tempestuous sea, and a rescue of the princess by the American missionary after she has cast herself into the raging waters in despair.

Miss Bore's interpretation of the princess role is declared to be one of the best pieces of acting she has done in her remarkable career in motion pictures.

COLUMBUS TEN YEARS AGO.

Fourteen pounds of sugar for $1 at the Square Deal Market. Mrs. Josephine M. Farrah made household filing this week.

Mrs. El Paso of El Paso was a visitor here this week.

George A. Keyes is the new customs collector to succeed Dr. Adidis Althro.

John Stearns has filed on a desert claim.

Elwin P. White of Jerome, N. Y., is making his home this winter with his mother, A. K. White.

Dr. Linhart sells his drug store to C. E. Miller.

A. J. Evans of Deming was in town.

John Dalton was in the city looking for a location.

Charles Amiel attended K. P. dance.

C. B. Rogers from eastern Arkansas has purchased a relinquishment.

The ladies had a midday lunch at Sisco's store.

W. C. Hoover lets contract for 16 room hotel.

The town you live in is just what you make it. The average individual believes he is so weighty, so "all-fired" important and learned that he outclasses his neighbors.

The truth is his neighbors are stickier and giving him the horse laugh.

About forty-five days more of weather and conditions and Columbus will perk up and then buckle down for the steady increase in population.

A man remarked the other day that he had been humiliated. Impossible. The truth is never insulting.

Romaho Mining Co.

Capitalization $400,000

THIS city, like all others, has, since any loose change was in sight, been visited by salaried men representing every known stock company in the country; and thousands of dollars have been spent for various schemes, some good, some bad.

At present there is a practically level horizon, made up of men their longographs can call by their first name. The officials of the Romaho Mining Company are men who would not lend their names to a "scheme" of any description.

The prospects of the Romaho Mining Company are based on practical knowledge of ore actually in sight in the Tres Hermanas Mountains, and on the opinions of the best known mining engineers in this section of the United States.

Machinery has been ordered, some delivered, and actual work has been begun developing ore bodies on the claims of the Romaho Mining Company, and the future looks rosy to those who already have invested. If you are not among this number you should be.

The stock of this company is $1 per share and none will be sold for less. Get in on the ground floor. Your investment will earn money for you and it will earn money for Columbus, because this town will sell the supplies to the new mining camp. Send your order for shares to Tenney Williams & Co., the brokers for the Romaho Mining Company.

U. S. TROOPS INVADE CITY; CAME FROM FT. BLISS

From the Courier, Jan. 10, 1912.
Six troops of U. S. Cavalry, viz., E. F. O. H. K. and M. under command of Lieut. Col. Galbraith arrived in Columbus yesterday noon and made camp over night. They are enroute from Ft. Bliss, where they have been stationed for several months past, to Ft. Huachuca, Arizona, where they will go into barracks.

The troops consist of 13 officers, 340 men, together with 407 horses and mules, a hospital ambulance, 13 four mule and 6 two mule freight wagons.

The troops left Ft. Bliss last Sunday, and, traveling across the desert, Columbus is the first town on their route. Here they received a large quantity of mail which had been accumulating in the local post office during the past week.

The troops present a fine body of well trained soldiers, well equipped and in excellent condition to answer the call of Uncle Sam at any moment. It was interesting to see the boys gather around the station well and gulp down copious quantities of the 99.99 liquid and listen to their remarks: "First good drink I've had since I came to the southwest." "It beats 'bud' all to pieces." "El Paso justice isn't in it with this."

Columbus turned out en masse to greet the soldiers and assure them a hearty welcome to the metropolis of the Lower Mimbres Valley.

MORPHINE PEDDLER AT CLOVIS IS IN TROUBLE

CLOVIS, N. M., July 21.—A. R. Koons, a painter, is in trouble charged with having several bottles of morphine taken from a drug store to peddle. The United States court will attend to his case.

CLOVIS SO CLEAN IT HAS NO USE FOR A JAIL

CLOVIS, N. M., July 21.—There has been a marked decrease in crime for the past few years and grand juries have found little to do. Now Judge Sam Bratton has decided that the county will be saved the expense of a grand jury during the August term of district court for the reason that there is nothing for the crime investigators to do. The News challenges any county of 16,000 population to show as clean a record as Curry county has shown for the past six months.

"If I Only Had the Money"

WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

Is it to own your home some home some day?—to buy a farm?—to set up in business for yourself?

Perhaps your own particular dream is not one of these, but whatever it is, you will surely need more money than you have now.

WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

Is it to give your children a better start in life than you had?—a college training for your boy or girl?

A dream worth dreaming is a dream worth making come true. Dreams come true through saving.

WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

To own your car?—to be on "Easy Street"?—free from financial and money worries?—to be somebody?—successful and prosperous?

Start a bank account—keep a bank account—save something and deposit it regularly every pay day—buy War Savings Stamps, too.
